experience

Graphics reporter for elections, The Washington Post AUG. 2019 - PRESENT

Report, design, build and edit graphics stories on the politics beat. Coordinate election results coverage plans with product, engineering and newsroom leadership. Conceptualize new reader-facing election results features, design new components, and develop election results visualizations for all platforms. Edit results pages produced by engineering to ensure elections products align with newsroom storytelling priorities and standards.

Data visualization developer, Reuters APRIL 2016 - JULY 2019

Reported, designed and developed graphics stories for reuters.com and Reuters media clients, with a focus on elections, politics, policy and economics coverage. Led graphics coverage for the 2018 midterm elections.

News applications developer, The Atlanta Journal-Constitution AUG. 2013 - APRIL 2016

Collaborated with investigative reporters and data journalists to research, design and develop data visualizations, web applications and visual story packages. Built and managed internal newsroom tools for reporters and producers. Coordinated cross-organizational projects focused on immersive and alternative storytelling.
